

WEEKLY & FIRST SATURDAY BIRD WALK

Wednesdays 8 a.m. – 10 a.m.
& Saturday, June 4, 8 a.m. – 10 a.m.

Start your day with a guided walk to explore the birds of Kleb Woods Nature Preserve. All ages and levels of experience are welcome. Bring your own equipment, water, bug spray, etc. Walks leave from the Nature Center.

FARM TOURS

Daily, on request between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Ask park staff for a tour of the historic homestead. Learn about the Kleb family history as you explore the barn, farmhouse, and one-bedroom guest house which are over 100 years old. While this is no longer a working farm, volunteers maintain a garden with seasonal fruits and vegetables on display. *There are no farm animals on the property.

BIRDING BUS TRIPS SIGN-UP

Friday, June 1 – Registration open

Sign-up is on a first-come, first-served basis. Transportation is provided for individuals 50 and older through Harris County Precinct 4. The bus will pick up and drop off participants at the parking lot on Draper Road. Visit hcp4.net/events to sign up for the following trips:

Friday, June 3, from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Exotic bird species in the Greater Houston Area. Target species include Egyptian goose, monk parakeet, Indian peafowl, red-vented bulbul, and scaly-breasted munia. Lunch at BB's Cafe.

Friday, July 22, from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Join us to search for swallow-tailed kites, the endangered red-cockaded woodpecker, and more.

DISCOVERY DAYS: LIFE CYCLES WITH TEXAS WILDLIFE ASSOCIATION

Thursday, June 2, from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.
or 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

All are welcome at this program designed especially for school-aged children. Through activities and games, students will learn how a plant or animal grows into an adult and how each stage affects other plant and animal populations. Registration is required and space is limited. Registration required. Visit hcp4.net/events to sign up.

HISTORY DISCUSSION GROUP

Thursday, June 9, from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Each month we discuss a different book, article, or historical topic. These programs are intended to foster discussion, and attendees are encouraged to comment and participate. History Discussion Groups are best suited for adults and older students with a keen interest in history. In June, join guest speaker Kathleen Kelly to discuss her book "Indelible Footprints in San Felipe de Austin." Through first-hand accounts like letters and diaries, the book tells the story of how Texas was established and what life was like for the "Old Three Hundred."

DISCOVERY DAYS: BEING A BLACKSMITH

Thursday, June 16, from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.
or 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

All are welcome at this program designed especially for school-aged children. Participants will use a hammer and nail to cold-forge their own tin punch design, and try out different sanding grits to clean up old pieces of metal. Registration required. Visit hcp4.net/events to sign up.

BLUEGRASS MUSIC AT THE NATURE CENTER

Saturday, June 25, from noon to 4 p.m.

Enjoy music during the monthly jam session with Cypress Bluegrass Rising. Occurs every month on the fourth Saturday, except on holidays.

DISCOVERY DAYS: BACKYARD CRITTERS WITH TWRC WILDLIFE CENTER

Thursday, July 7, 10 – 11 a.m. or 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

This program is designed especially for school-aged children. Meet some animal ambassadors from the TWRC Wildlife Center as you learn about the benefits of coexisting with our wild neighbors, their roles in the urban ecosystem, and helping wildlife in need. Registration is required. To sign up, email klebwoods@hcp4.net or call 281-357-5324, and let us know which time you would like to attend.

HISTORY DISCUSSION GROUP

Thursday, July 14, 9 – 11 a.m.

Each month we discuss a different book, article, or historical topic. These programs are intended to foster discussion, and attendees are encouraged to comment and participate. History Discussion Groups are best suited for adults and older students with a keen interest in history. In July, Hunter Hammil will discuss "The Perils of Peace: America's Struggle for Survival After Yorktown" by Thomas Fleming, which details the aftermath of the American Revolution. With British soldiers still occupying New York City, a dwindling Congress, and an anemic treasury, the future of the United States was far from certain.

BLUEGRASS MUSIC AT THE NATURE CENTER

Saturday, July 23, 12 – 4 p.m.

Enjoy music during the monthly jam session with Cypress Bluegrass Rising. Occurs every month on the fourth Saturday, except on holidays.

DISCOVERY DAYS: FUN IN THE FARMHOUSE

Thursday, July 28, 10 – 11 a.m. or 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

This program is designed especially for school-aged children. Come explore the Kleb house and learn what life would have been like growing up there in the early 1900s. Help us churn butter, beat rugs, wash clothes, and fill the bathtub. When the chores are done, play some old-fashioned games! Registration required. To sign up, email klebwoods@hcp4.net or call 281-357-5324, and let us know which time you would like to attend.
